Graduate Students

Ohio State is launching a new MS/PHD program in Quantum Information Science and Engineering (QISE) with funding from the National Science Foundation. The program, funded by NSF’s Research Traineeship (NRT), will include core new graduate-level courses, experiential learning such as graduate research and industry internships, and professional training in communication and ethics. Students will have access to faculty members and courses in the Departments of Physics, Math and Chemistry and Biochemistry in the College of Arts and Sciences, as well as the Departments of Electrical and Computer Engineering, Computer Science and Engineering, and Materials Science Engineering. More information

Undergraduate Students
Get involved! The Department of Physics provides many opportunities to engage further and meet other physics majors, including our wonderful student organizations! The Society of Physics Students (SPS), Sigma Pi Sigma: Physics Honors Society, Society for Women in Physics, and Polaris Mentoring Program are all worth looking into if you want to be more involved in the department. Visit our website for more information.

Undergraduate socials are back! Join us once a month on Thursdays from 2-3 PM in the PRB commons for food, drink, games, and socializing with your fellow physics majors. Our next event will be Thursday, October 19th. We hope to see you there! More information on our social media @osuphysics.
